REGULAR BOARD MEETING CONTINUED

Superintendent Anderson reported that winter activities are back in full swing now. There is no school on January 16th due to Martin Luther King Jr. Day. There is a double header at home against Platte/Geddes on January 16th. Junior honor choir will be in Sioux Falls on January 20th and 21st. On January 24th, a DCI agent is coming to speak to students in grades 4-12 about cell phone usage, social media, cyberbullying, and other issues. Midterm for the 3rd quarter is February 1st. There is a 1:30 pm dismissal on February 9th for parent teacher conferences. Elementary honor choir is in Brookings on February 9th. There is no school on February 10th for a comp day for parent teacher conferences. An update was given on the construction projects. The outside doors were installed over break and the new construction is on schedule. City council moved forward with the remodeling of the auditorium bathrooms pending the schools involvement. The school board will probably not meet with the local legislatures, as only Erin Tobin was the only one to respond back. Dr. Graves, the superintendent from the Mitchell School District, was appointed as the new Secretary of Education. A STEM grant was awarded through the DIAL school and CORE received a grant that is to help with the issue of hiring school psychologists.
